Numb. 9490.

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 1, to Saturday July 5, 1755.

Naples, May 27.

THE Marquess de Fogliani, Viceroy of Sicily, being on his Departure for that Kingdom, has been for some Days past taking Leave of the principal Persons of this City. Yesterday the Margrave of Brandebourg-Bareith arrived here, and the Margravine his Spouse is daily expected; but as they travel incognito, they cannot receive the Honours due to their high Birth. We have received an Account, that a Tripolitan Chebeck, on board of which were thirty Christian Slaves, whom the Master was necessitated to employ in working the Ship during a violent Tempest on their Return to Tripoly, had been carried by those Slaves into the Port of Trapani in Sicily, where the Master and his Crew were put in Irons, and the Christians set at Liberty.

Constantinople, June 2. On the 17th past we had a violent Fire near the Jews and Greeks Quarter, called Ballat, which began before Eight in the Evening, and continued burning until Six the next Morning. The Number of Houses destroyed is very considerable, but mostly of poor Jews and Greeks. The next Day produc'd a sudden Change; our Vizir Aly Pascha Echim Oglu was deposed, after 51 Days Continuance in that Post: As a Galley was not ready to carry him off immediately, he lay that Night in the Light House or Watch Tower we call Leander's Tower, and from thence was sent to Cyprus. The Selichtar Aga, or Sword-bearer to the Grand Seignor, was also deposed at the same Time, and is since come out of the Seraglio with the Honour of three Tails, the Paschalyck of Heydin, and in the Post of Nissangi, or he who is entrusted with the Grand Seignor's Signature. Nailly Abdulah Efendi the Jesterdar, received the Seals as Vizir: He was bred up in the Business of the Offices from his Infancy. The latter End of 1747 he attained to the Post of Reis Efendi, in which he was succeeded by the Present: He is perfectly acquainted with Business, and is a Man of great Prudence, and peaceable Disposition. Aly Pascha's Cheaia shared the Fate of his Master, and is kept in close Confinement until Accounts are adjusted; and one Jegen Efendi, who had before declined that Office, was obliged to accept of it. The Foreign Ministers Audiences of the Vizir began on the 22d, and finished on Sunday the 25th. M. Vergennes, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Court of France, arrived here on the 22d, and the next Day notified his Arrival to all the Foreign Ministers. He had his Audience of the Vizir on Saturday, and is to have that of the Grand Seignor To-morrow. The same Day a double Pay, consisting in about 2400 Purses, or 1,200,000 Dollars, is to be distributed to the Soldiery. The Fast of Rameran begins on the 9th Instant.

Stockholm, June 3. The Court is still at Ulrichsdahl, but their Majesties intend to remove next Friday to Drottningholm, where they propose staying till August. Count Solms, who is to replace M. Malzhan as Envoy from the King of Prussia to this Court, is daily expected here from Berlin. M. Celsing, who is gone with a Letter from his Swedish Majesty to the Grand Seignor, to compliment him on his Advancement to the Ottoman Throne, carried with him several magnificent Presents for his Sublime Highness and the principal Ministers of his Court. General Count During, Governor of this City, has been so dangerously ill for some Days past, that his Physicians have very little Hopes of his Recovery. The King has disposed of the Government of the Province of Westmorland in Favour of Colonel Cronhiord.

Copenhagen, June 13. The Troops encamped in this Neighbourhood are regularly exercised as in Time of War. Last Wednesday the King dined with General Nummesen in his Tent; after which his Majesty went with the said General to see the Form of Springing a Mine, and in the Evening returned to Frederichsberg. This Morning his Majesty went again to the Camp, and dined in the Tent of the Chamberlain Count Plessen, Colonel of the Horse Guards.

Hambourg, June 13. We are informed by Letters from Petersbourg, that the Envoy Extraordinary from the Grand Seignor is on his Departure for Constantinople, and that he is to be soon followed by Prince Dolgoroucki, whom her Imperial Majesty has appointed to compliment the new Sultan. The same Letters add, that the University lately established at Moscow, was opened on the 7th of last Month with great Solemnity.

Rome,

[Price Four-Pence.]

Rome, June 14. A few Days ago the Pope's Gallies failed from Port d'Anzio on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pirates. On the 7th Inſtant the Pope went from Caſtle Gandolfo to viſit Cardinal Guadagne at his Abbey of Grotta Ferrata, by whom he was magnificently entertain'd, as well as his Retinue and Guards. On the 8th the Margrave and Margravine of Bareith returned to this City from Naples, and it is ſaid, will ſtay here till the Feſtival of St. Peter, the 28th Inſtant.

Florence, June 21. In the laſt Week M. Du Menil, Major of the Emperor's Body Guard, called la Garde Noble, ſurrendered himſelf into Arreſt in one of the Fortreſſes, in Conſequence of an immediate Order from Vienna, for having taken upon him the Command of that Corps, in Prejudice of the Chevalier des Sales his Superior Officer, and on whom his Imperial Majeſty has conferred that Command pro interim. On the 12th Inſtant the Prince Corſini, and his Brother, arrived here from Bologne. On the 16th Count Richecourt returned here from the Piſa Baths.

Aranjuez, June 16. Lord Bruce arrived on Tueſday laſt at Antigola, and was the next Day preſented to their Catholick Majeſties, who received him in a very gracious Manner; after which he was entertained at Dinner by M. Wall, his Catholick Majeſty's firſt Secretary of State. Baron Hildebrand, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Court of Sweden, had his firſt Audiences on the 13th Inſtant, wherein he preſented his Credential Letters to their Catholick Majeſties.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again; and by James Eſdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.
